

Awards of Excellence for Sunshine Coast Women

There are three award categories:

- 1) Entrepreneurship
- 2) Health and Wellness, Sport and Recreation
- 3) Non-profit/Community Service

General Criteria:

A Woman of Excellence is inspiring and has achieved outstanding success benefiting the Sunshine Coast for over five years through a number of the following ways:

- Being a leader and role model
- Breaking new ground or old barriers
- Participating actively as a volunteer
- Mentoring others
- Showing vision, creativity and initiative
- Making a significant difference in her field
- Being respected by her community for her contributions

Specific Criteria:

Entrepreneurship

Sponsored by Just Business Magazine

She has a dynamic approach and has shown a creativity or innovation in solving a problem, filling a need or breaking into a new market. She has risked a great deal to successfully manage, launch or revive a business, product, or service.

Health & Wellness, Sport & Recreation

Sponsor TBA

She is an obvious leader and glowing example through her lifestyle and involvement in the area of Health & Wellness, Sport & Recreation that promotes a healthy, active Sunshine Coast community. She has generated effective programs; has a proven record of compassion and sensitivity to her patients/clients/citizens; and has modeled through her lifestyle, actions or achievements her authentic commitment to a healthy lifestyle in its broadest, fullest sense.

Non-Profit/Community Building

Sponsored by the Coast Reporter

Through her passion and commitment to the Sunshine Coast and its citizens, she has identified a local community need or issue and has provided effective initiative to inspire and pioneer meaningful change. She is recognized as a source of strength and heart in her community, and engages the volunteer efforts of time and talent of others.

The selection panel will be comprised of nine Sunshine Coast residents, and the awards will be presented at a ceremony on January 30, 2008 at the Sunshine Coast Golf and Country Club in Roberts Creek.
